

Small Group Questions from Aug. 13, 2017

Read Text: Titus 1:1-9

1. Discuss your overall reaction to the message from Sunday. Did anything “stick with you” throughout this past week?
2. The gospel breaks down racial barriers. Paul’s own relationship with Titus reveals that. How have you seen this play out in your world? How do we still need to grow in racial reconciliation as American Christians? How can we encourage this in our church?
3. Bob stated that you have more in common with a fellow believer in Indonesia than with your non-Christian brother-in-law. What does this mean? How have you witnessed this? Why is this important to remember?
4. Paul calls himself a slave of God. What might it mean to be a “slave” of the Lord? How is that different from being a slave to anyone or anything else? What might it look like for you to live out this identity in your life?

Small Group Questions from August 6, 2017

Read Text: 2 Timothy 4:9-22

1. Discuss your overall reaction to the message from Sunday. Did anything “stick with you” throughout this past week?
2. Bob stated that our corporate worship service is just a dress rehearsal for the rest of the week. What might this mean? How have you experienced this dynamic in your own life?
3. Two of Bob’s main points include the realization that both you need others and others need you. In what ways do you need others? How do you sometimes act as if you don’t? In what ways do others need you? How have you experienced that? In what way are you engaging in community regularly?
4. Bob also pointed out that some people will disappoint you. How do we keep relational disappointments from holding us back from engaging in community? How can the Lord help us when other relationships let us down?