Small Group Questions from Sept. 24, 2017

Read Text: Titus 3:12-15

1. Discuss your overall reaction to the message from Sunday. Did anything "stick with you" throughout this past week?

2. What are some of the wrong ways we think about and evaluate a church? Why do we misunderstand the church so often? How should we think about the church? How can we strive to think rightly about the church?

3. Bob said that we often make idols out of things that we believe will give us worth, meaning, and significance. What are some idols that you struggle with? How can you fight against those idols this week?

4. Christ's example is one of serving others. What are some ways we can serve others? How has God called you to serve specifically?

5. How does busyness keep us from serving one another and cultivating fellowship? How can we change this? How will you strive to change that this week?

6. Read 1 Corinthians 12:21-26. What does this text teach us about the church? How are we tempted to live contrary to this passage? How can we actually live this passage out in our church?

Small Group Questions from Sept. 17, 2017

Read Text: Titus 3.9-11

1. Discuss your overall reaction to the message from Sunday. Did anything "stick with you" throughout this past week?

2. Why is unity so important for the church? How have you seen disunity destroy people, churches, or other organizations? Bob mentioned that our unity is rooted in God's love for us. Why is that foundation for church unity important to remember?

3. Bob stated that our unity is forged as prefer one another over ourselves. What might this mean? How have you seen others prefer you? How have you sought to prefer others? How can we cultivate this attitude in our whole church?

4. Bob stated that unity is attractive and unique. Read John 13:35. What might this mean? How can love become an evangelistic tool?

5. How can we guard the unity of our church? If you were to evaluate Cornerstone, how do you think we are currently doing at this? How are you contributing to the safeguarding of our unity?