1. Discuss your overall reaction to the message from Sunday. Did anything “stick with you” throughout this past week?
2. We often assume we are spiritually fine (both before and even after salvation). Why do we assume this? What would healthy spiritual self-evaluation look like and how do we do that?
3. The individuals in the parable Jesus tells believe that they have done enough for the master of the house to open the door to them. Jesus is making the point that your privileges and performances are not enough. Why is this important for us to remember even after we are believers? How does this level of humility shape our relationship to Jesus and our continual growth in Christian living?
4. Bob stated that there are ways in which our privileges can actually become a curse. What might this mean? What are some privileges you are inclined to rely on? How can we live in such a way that we are dependent upon Jesus and not looking to our various privileges to create spiritual security for us?
